Delegation At B & PW Convention

It's convention time and there was an exodus of Business and Professional Women from Torrance yesterday headed for the Huntington Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena where Sierra Mar district convlave is underway.

Virginia Beck, district federation training chairman from the Torrance Club will have the honor of presenting awards at this convention.

The guest speaker will be La Codia Ellis, first vice president of the California State B&PW. Her talk is entitled "The Golden Circle" referring to the circle around the club emblem which this year the local club used as its theme.

Attending the convention from Torrance are: Virginia Beck, Muriel Whiting, club president; Betty Massie, first vice president; Ruth Shrum, recording secretary; Maxine Herman, treasurer; Clara Conner, Ruth Brumby, Lillian Curtis, Nina Mortensen, and Pearl Good. A guest is Mrs. Nell Weiner of Canada, who

AREA SUPERVISOR VISITS TOPS CLUB

Mrs. Daisy Fern Haugen, area supervisor for California, was the honored guest at the Tops Club meeting held last Thursday at the YWCA.

Nominations for officers for the coming year were made after a short business meeting and the customary weigh-ins. Elections will be held the following meeting.

Mrs. Haugen, who is the houseguest of Mrs. Jean Maland, attended the conference in Long Beach recently at which time Mrs. Maland was chosen runner-up for the title, Queen of California.

Installation of officers will be held April 11 at the YWCA. There will also be a special program for the occasion, according to Mrs. Marge Sloan, vice president and program chairman.

Mrs. Haugen, who has helped organize 15 other Top Clubs, is in charge of over 30 clubs in California. While here, before returning to her home in Rochester, Minn., she will visit other clubs in California.

is here visiting her daughter, Ruth Shrum.

Scout Adults Discuss Camp

Central Torrance Assn. of Girl Scout Adults met on Tuesday, March 26, at the Catholic annex.

The results of the recent Cookie Sale in February were reviewed by Mrs. Lee Stamps, chairman. On the average each scout in central Torrance sold two cartons.

The Day Camp director, Mrs. A. A. Krauszer will have all the troops in the area visited by Senior Troop 1299 and tell them about the camp. These older scouts will be program aides at the camp. Thirty group leaders will be needed to accommodate 240 girls.

The Tribute to Leaders Luncheon for the Harbor Area will be held on Tuesday, April 23, from 11:30 until 2 p.m., at the Masonic Temple. Reservations must be made through Mrs. Stamps. Each local troop will decorate a table.

Mrs. W. E. Walton showed the group pictures taken at the Senior Roundup held last June in Michigan.

Annual troop reports were distributed at the meeting and the leaders were assisted in filling them out.

FERN-GREENWOOD

Final arrangements have been completed for two shows by a nationally famous puppeteer at the Fern Elementary School cafeteria Tuesday evening, it was reported yesterday by Mrs. D. D. Tuggle, president of the Fern-Greenwood PTA.

The shows, sponsored by the PTA as a fund-raising project, will be held from 6 to 7 p.m. and again from 7:30 to 8:30.

Final plans for the evening of entertainment were completed at a meeting of the unit's board of directors this week at the home of Mrs. A. L. Campbell, 812 Patronella Ave.

In addition to discussions on the marionette show, the board heard a report on the health luncheon held in Los Angeles last month. Mrs. Campbell, who attended the luncheon, made the report.

Judge John A. Shidler, of the South Bay Municipal Court, will speak at the association meeting Thursday evening, it was disclosed. He will speak on the topic of "Juvenile Protection." The meeting begins at 7:30.

ME Women Meet April 11

Women's Society of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday, April 11, beginning at 10 a.m. Mrs. Maude Olson will speak on the subject, "United Church Women," at the morning business session. Mrs. C. P. Olson will preside. Luncheon will be served at noon by the members of the Rebecca Circle.

The theme of the 1 p.m. worship service will be "Our Plus Becomes a Cross," led by Mrs. B. Kirks. Special Easter music will be a feature with Mrs. Ruth White at the organ and Mrs. L. Balsley at the piano.

Members are asked to bring jams, jellies and staple groceries to be donated to the Robincroft Home.

Other discussions at this week's board meeting included plans for the District convention at Whittier on April 11, and the election of district officers.

DINNER HOSTS

Many festive gatherings have been held the past few evenings at the Marineland restaurant in Palos Verdes where localites have enjoyed cocktail-dinner parties recently.

Recent hosts in the Porpoise Room were Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Thompson of Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hyde of Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nemzer of Hollywood Riviera, Jack Sherrard of Redondo Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Clark of Hollywood Riviera.

NEW YORKERS HERE

Recent Torrance visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Henry U. Harris of Long Island, N.Y. They were feted upon their Southland arrival with a dinner party at the Marineland restaurant in Palos Verdes, co-hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Rex H. Hume and Mr. and Mrs. William F. Monahan.

PARENTS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hayden of Azusa, who spent last week here with their daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Rector on Via La Selva, left Saturday for their home. The Rectors drove them to Azusa and remained for the week end.

SUMMER SCHOOL SET

Summer school classes in the Torrance Unified School District will be held from June 24 to Aug. 2, the Torrance Board of Education decided Tuesday night. Planned are 95 elementary classes and 11 high school courses.
